3:00pm | PH Auditorium

June's program will be a second round of great tunes, all of them essential to a music series like mine: One Beautiful Piece After Another, Part II, with Chopin, Sibelius, Rimsky-Korsakov and others.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10

LIVE Saturday with the Arts: Zingaresca Ensemble
1:00pm | Dunn Cascadia Hall

Formed in 2006, the this ensemble is a product of collaboration between the celebrated Romani virtuoso Vadim Kolpakov and the Juilliard-trained baritone Anton Belov. The ensemble interweaves classical Eastern European guitar heritage with the best traditions of the Romani and Jewish diaspora, thus blending the sophistication of classical music with the fiery vitality of folk musical expression.

TUESDAY, JUNE 13

LIVE Author Talk: Suzanne Parry "The Lost Souls of Leningrad"
3:00pm | PH Auditorium

A former US defense policy specialist, Parry now writes historical fiction about the Soviet Union. Oppressed by Stalin, and cornered by Hitler, this is the compelling tale of one family's wartime struggle. "This is historical fiction that feels ripped from today's headlines ... an engaging portrayal of love and survival in wartime," says best-selling author Debra Dean.

THURSDAY, JUNE 15

Piano Concert: Anthony Padilla
2:00pm | Chapel of the Holy Names

Former student of our own Sr. Mary Ann Rawson, Anthony Padilla is a professor of piano and chamber music at the Lawrence University Conservatory of Music in Appleton, Wisconsin.
